BODEGA under the counter cdtrax 325 : 2008

Winners of the BBC Radio 2 Young Folk Award competition of 2006, this is the follow-up album to "Bodega" (CDTRAX 295) released in 2006. This is an absolute cracker with a fine mix of instrumentals and songs in both Gaelic and Scots.

10 Tracks incl:- Inward Chimney; The Stamping Ground; Drams; Tha Na H-uain Air An Tulaich; Lost Little Children and Missing Tramp

Also Available: cdtrax 295 bodega (2006)

Scotland On Sunday - These young players have oodles of musical technique.

THE CAST greengold cdtrax 319 : 2007

Mairi Campbell and Dave Francis, the Cast, are a multi-talented Scottish duo who have two previous albums on the Culburnie label. Mairi sings and plays fiddle and Dave plays guitar and adds backing vocals. The album is a collection of their own songs and compositions, two Burns' songs and one traditional song. A lovely gentle album.

11 tracks incl: Smile or Cry; Deirdre's Song; The lea-rig; Young Betty; There is a light and Song for Cove. The Day Dawn, A Red, Red Rose, Higher Germany.

Hall Of Fame.

Live Ireland – Highly recommended.

CEOLBEG collected cdtrax 374 : 2013

A compilation of some of the best tracks from Ceolbeg's five albums, including their first (not on Greentrax). The album is dedicated to Peter Boond, the Band's founder member who died in 2013. Probably the finest instrumental and vocal band to sign for Greentrax.

16 Tracks Incl: Farewell Tae The Haven; See The People Run; Johnnie Cope; Zito The Bubbleman; The Sleeping Tune; The Gaberlunzie Man; Willie Wastle; Cairn Water; To Each and Every One Of You; Return of The Bunny and more

Inverness Courier - "By turns joyful, stately, melancholic and toe-tappingly good fun".

THE FINLAY MacDONALD BAND re-echo cdtrax 299 : 2007

The Finlay MacDonald Band consists of Finlay MacDonald (pipes and whistles); Chris Stout (fiddle); Kevin MacKenzie (guitar); Fergus MacKenzie (drums); John Speirs (bass). First album on Greentrax. The Band is hugely exciting and on up-tempo tunes they bring the house down. Extremely gifted musicians.

9 Tracks Incl: The Old Man Dancing, Back To Bergamo, Armstrongs, Funky, Breton Set, Elav The Terrible, Bulgarian Set, Abdul's & Ud The Duduck.

Joe Ross - This young band has the potential for true greatness.

GIVEWAY lost in this song cdtrax 332 : 2009

Third album from the four young and hugely talented Johnson sisters from near Edinburgh. The first two albums received amazing reviews and the band is now hugely popular in the UK, Europe and USA. Produced again by Phil Cunningham (of Aly Bain and Phil Cunningham fame) who is also a huge fan of the band.

10 Tracks:- Lost in The Song; Flipperfoot The Muggler; Western Highway; Zander The Salamander; The Water is Wide; This One's On You; Violets; The Poaching Song; Beginning Set; Lofty's

Also Available: cdtrax 245 full steam ahead (2003) • cdtrax 280 inspired (2005)

Froots - Slickly produced, performed and packaged.

GORDON GUNN BAND shoreside cdtrax 204 : 2000

The Gordon Gunn Band consists of Gordon Gunn (fiddle), Phil Anderson (guitar, bass, percussion & keyboards); Billy Peace (keyboards, accordion & percussion). The trio's background is from the Scottish and Country band scenes and each Band member has a wide variety of experience. Gordon began his musical career playing with Addie Harper and the Wick Fiddlers and met Phil and Billy through playing in the Ruby Rendall Band in the '80's. Gordon is an amazing fiddle player - he has remarkable technique and plays with great style. He is influenced by Scottish, Jazz and Country music.

Tracks:- Mulvill's Set; J.D. Peace of Shoreside Set; Montgomery Bell Waltz Set; The 'French' Set; Orkney; Derrane's Reel Set; Castlebay Scrap; Return to the Brandy Wine; The Barrowburn Reel Set; Slow Air For Margaret; Hogties Reel Set; Nancy Finlayson; Donald MacLean's Jig Set; The Fair Dancer Reel Set.

THE MCCALMANS the greentrax years cdtrax 350 : 2010

This compilation has been specially selected by 'The Macs' and MD Ian Green from the many albums the band has recorded for the label. The selection clearly indicates the huge repertoire of the group, plus their song-writing strength. The McCalmans retired as a group at the end of 2010 after 45 years on the road. They were one of the most successful and loyal groups on the GreenTrax books. This is a double CD for the price of one.

46 Tracks Incl: Isle of Eigg; Farewell to The Haven; Coming Home; Twa Recruitin' Sergeants; Both Sides The Tweed, Festival Lights; Rolling Hills of The Borders; Wrecked Again; Back of The Aisler; Scotland; Keepers; The Highland Road, The 12 Folk Days of Christmas

PEATBOG FAERIES mellowosity cdtrax 124 : 1996

Based on the Isle of Skye, the Peatbog Faeries released their debut album, "Mellowosity" (CDTRAX 124) in 1996 to high critical acclaim. Sue Wilson of The Scotsman newspaper wrote "Powerful melodies are dextrously pumped out with a smart degree of techno attitude, while cross-rhythms ricochet over a heavy bass that hits you forcefully like a massive heart beat. Reggae, dub and soca rhythms all play their part with a lot of gorgeously undulating modal melodies from Macedonia and further." This is high octane Celtic dance music.

9 Tracks Incl:- Lexy Macaskill; Eggman; The Manali Beatle; Dancing Feet; Maid of Mount Cisco, Mellowosity.

Groups : Traditional & Contemporary, Instrumental & Vocal

THE POOZIES changed days, same roots cdtrax 249 : 2003

The Poozies have enjoyed great success wherever they have travelled. This is due largely to the spirit of joy in their music. The lineup on this album was Patsy Seddon, Mairead Green, Eilidh Shaw and Mart MacMaster.

A TRIBUTE IN MUSIC & SONG TO JOHN BELLAMY Various Artists

cdtrax386 : 2015

The late great painter John Bellamy, CBE. RA. was originally from Port Seton, near to the Greentrax office, and was from a fishing family. This album is a tribute to the great man and royalties go to The John Bellamy Day Centre in Port Seton. John's family, including his lovely widow Helen, advised re John's favourite Scottish songs and artists and this unique album resulted. The front cover is a reproduction of his painting 'Port Seton Harbour'. A quite remarkable album.

18 Tracks Incl: Moon River (lovely version by Siobhan Miller), Bonaparte's Retreat (Aly Bain and Phil Cunningham), The Road To Dundee (The Corries), Farewell To The Haven (Davy Steele with Ceolbeg), Tunes by Hamish Moore, His Brush Across The Canvas (written by Ian McCalman), The Reel John Bellamy (Alex Hodgson), Local Choirs and The Thursday clients at the Day Centre singing The Boatie Rows (sung to John every time he visited the Centre).

WILLIAM MATHESON Gaelic Bards & Minstrels series 16 cdtrax 9016D : 1998 (from the School of Scottish Studies archives) Double CD release (previously available only on cassette)

During his years as lecturer and reader in the Department of Celtic in the University of Edinburgh, William Matheson was regarded by the staff of the School of Scottish Studies as their most reliable consultant on questions of Gaelic oral tradition, especially on songs and their melodies. The songs on this album were recorded between April 1982 and May 1983. An active and enthusiastic collector of songs and traditions since the 1930's, Willie Matheson accumulated a repertoire which illustrates admirably the marvellous variety of types of song that still exist in Gaelic.

This double CD collection is accompanied by a 68 page booklet of text in both Gaelic & English, and packaged in a special double CD 'maxi-box'.

DIRTY LINEN: Unforgettable songs and impossibly beautiful melodies.
